

COLONEL DOUGLAS MULBURY

Commander, U.S. Army Garrison-Hawaii

Col. Douglas S. Mulbury assumed command of U.S. Army Garrison-Hawaii on June 14, 2010.

Col. Mulbury graduated from Cornell University in 1985 and was commissioned into the Infantry. His troop assignments include the 1st Infantry Division, two tours with the 10th Mountain Division, and two tours with the 25th Infantry Division.

Col. Mulbury was assigned to 2nd Battalion, 27th Infantry Regiment as the Executive Officer, and 3rd Brigade, 25th ID as the Operations Officer and Brigade Executive Officer from June 1999-June 2002. From 2003-2005, Col. Mulbury commanded 1st Battalion, 32nd Infantry Regiment and deployed Task Force 1-32 to Operation Iraqi Freedom. From 2005-2006, Col. Mulbury served as the 10th Mountain Division's Chief of Transformation and as the Chief of Staff, Rear. From June 2008-February 2010, Col. Mulbury served as the G3 of the 25th ID and the G3 of Multi-National Division North during Operation Iraqi Freedom rotation 09-11.

Col. Mulbury's other assignments include Assistant Professor in the Department of Behavioral Sciences & Leadership at the United States Military Academy 1995-1998; Professor of Military Science, Syracuse University 2002-2003; Chief of Tactics, United States Army Infantry School 2006-2007.

Col. Mulbury is a graduate of the Command & General Staff College and the United States Army War College. He holds a Bachelor of Science from Cornell University, a Master of Science from the University of Southern California, a Master of Arts from the University of Hartford, and a Master of Science from the United States Army War College.